“ Cheryl and Tom,

Rocio, Valentia, and I share in your grief. Words will never be adequate to console you or replace your mom, our Aunt Agnes. She was a family treasure that will be tremendously missed. She was a bright light to the family and the community She was also a staunch advocate for us four boys during our youth. We are forever grateful to her. She ran to good race and finished it well, taking a little longer than most, but that was not a bad thing. While she is a loss to us, she returns to the Father. For we all are His creation, his craftsmanship and we do not belong to each other, but unto Him. It is His Spirit that dwells within us and back to him when we finally die. Life is but a temporary journey here on this Earth, but it is in dying that we enter into eternal life with Him, a much better place than this crazy world in which we live today. We all owe God a huge thank you for the time we had with Aunt Agnes.
