

Cynthia Lynn Pantaleo

June 2, 1956 - November 13, 2021

Cynthia Lynn Pantaleo, 65, of Aliquippa, beloved sister, aunt, and great aunt, passed away unexpectedly on November 13, 2021. She was born June 2, 1956, in Rochester, PA, and was the daughter of late Samuel C. and Mary C. Pantaleo.

Cindy was a lifelong resident of Aliquippa. She graduated from Hopewell High School in 1974. After high school she began work at Bell Telephone and continued her customer service career until retirement from Verizon in 2010. There's a good chance if you called customer service for your telephone, you would have spoken with Cindy at one time over the years. Cindy grew up cooking and baking with her mother, Mary "Pookie". After her mother's passing, Cindy continued to bake for her family and friends. Needless to say, she was a wonderful baker. Aside from baking, she loved cross stitching, crocheting, origami, and crafts. While she kept busy with her hobbies, nothing mattered to her more than family.

Cindy was tremendously loved and will be deeply missed. She is survived by her siblings: Sandra (Wayne), Sam (Helena), Mary (Tom), and Chuck. In addition to being a wonderful sister, she was an amazing aunt to her 8 nieces and nephews: Jennifer (Stephen), Amber (Frank), Vincent (Aracely), Tom (Cassie), Philip (Michele), Angela (Vladimir), Sammy, and Brooke; and 8 great nieces and nephews: Riley, Gavin, Evan, Adrien, Carsen, Lucas, Calvin, and Isaac.

Cindy was simply a beautiful person and richly blessed with family and dear friends. Her life was one lived with faith and hope. Her laugh was infectious, and her hugs could warm your soul. To know Cindy was to love her.

"To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die" Cindy will live forever in the hearts of her friends and family. We love you.

“ Aunt Cindy,

Your sudden passing has left a tremendous hole in my heart, one that I will do my best to fill with memories of our times together. Your funeral was one the hardest I have ever experienced. I found myself constantly searching for you, to share with you what was going on, to comfort, to hug, and to just be near. I will continue to seek you in my prayers and hope you are free from pain and suffering. Please do not be a stranger to my dreams. Please give Grandma & Grandpa a big hug from me. Thank you for all the love you gave me, my husband, and my kids. We miss you. We love you.

*Love Always,
Jenny*

“ Cindy. I may not have you here with us, but we will always have each other. You were a wonderful, kind & thoughtful sister. I miss you to no end. I am grateful for the years I had with you and I would move heaven & earth to have you here with us again. The fact that you are no longer here will always cause me pain. I never got one last time to say, "I love you"- I never got to say "I'll miss you" - I never got to say "Good-bye" You are forever in my heart until we meet again. I love you, I'll miss you, always & forever

“ Aunt Cindy,

I will forever keep warm memories of you in my heart and mind. I'll never forget spending summers with you. Your laugh was incredible and infectious. Thank you for loving me. I'm sorry we didn't get to spend more time together, and sorry that you left us suddenly. Until we meet again, may your beautiful soul rest in the presence of Jesus. With love, Angie!

“ Cindy is a wonderful person. Many years ago she gave Chuck and I Christmas decorations. At the time we didn't have any decorations she was so generous in giving us so many beautiful things, to this day every year when I decorate for Christmas using many of those same things I think about Cindy and how kind she was to me.

Cindy was a kind, generous person that was always looking out for others she will be greatly missed.

*God bless,
Paula*
