“ I met Debbie years go when Tom and I were out for an evening of entertainment. Sean hadn't been with Debbie to long at that time and we all became fast friends. We would go out nearly every weekend for years and dance and laugh leaving our troubles behind. Debbie was kind and generous and to me a "best friend". I will never forget her. Memories live on. Rest in peace Deb. We love You, Deanna & Tom

Worked with Deb at Aliquippa Hospital back in the late 70s-80s. She was absolutely one of a kind heartfelt person. She would make you feel the only person in the room, attentive, caring. I am so sadden with this news. Always the good ones leave us too soon. Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful woman inside & out. Loved & highly regarded her always. Rest in Peace together with your parents....my condolences to her family
