

Dino Anthony Aloisi

May 29, 1962 - March 24, 2025

Dino Anthony Aloisi, 62, of Center Township, Beaver County, PA died unexpectedly Monday, March 24, 2025. Dino was born on May 29, 1962, to Lucille and the late Henry Aloisi of Monessen, PA. Dino was a 1980 graduate of Monessen High School and 1984 graduate of California University of Pennsylvania. He had a successful and resilient career having worked 18 years at U.S. Airways, 15 years at FedEx Ground, and planned to complete his career at the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) where he worked as a Transportation Permits Inspector for the past 7 years. To know Dino, was to love Dino. He was a Godly man that worked hard for his family, showed kindness to every individual he met, and lit up rooms with his jokes and contagious laughter. He was an avid golfer and enjoyed Tuesday evenings with the Triple H golf league at Beaver Valley Golf Course. His love for Pittsburgh sports was unmatched. Dino enjoyed listening to sports talk on WDVE every morning and "Sunday Funday's" in the North Shore cheering on the Pittsburgh Steelers with his family.

Above all, Dino loved his family more than anything in the world. On June 1, 1991, Dino married the love of his life, Rita Ann (Scorza). The two enjoyed many years of travel together during his years working at U.S. Airways before building a family of their own. Dino is survived by his wife of 33 years, Rita Ann (Scorza) Aloisi, of Center Township; son, Anthony Dino (30); daughter, Julia Nicole (26); mother, Lucille (Musial) Aloisi (87), of Monessen, PA; sister, Janine Aloisi Lombardi (Robert Lombardi), of New York City; sister-in-law, Angela Rinchuse; brother-in-law, Fredrick Scorza (Joy Maddox); nieces, Dr. Dara Rinchuse (Jason Harbison), Ruby Lombardi; nephews, Donnie Rinchuse (Adele Rinchuse), Henry Lombardi; and many great nieces and nephews.

“ During one of the most unstable times in my life, Dino gave me an opportunity to start a new career and to find stability.

Dino loved stories! He loved to tell them, and he loved to listen.

So many years later, I can recall how joyful Dino's laugh was -- and the twinkle in his eyes as he laughed. He had a wonderful spirit.

My deepest sympathies to Dino's family and dear friends.
