EJ was a kind, loving and happy child who always wanted to make people smile and fill with joy. If he thought you were sad he would cheer you up by singing "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star". EJ now shines as a bright star in the sky. His time with his family ended much too soon but the end of his life brought hope to other children when his parents unselfishly decided that EJ would be an organ donor in which he helped save multiple lives.
