“ Many years ago Jerry and his parents were part of my family's visitation circuit. My mom and I walked from our house near the Jr High to their house on the Terrace, and it was always a warm, welcoming time. We were piazanos after all! I still have his book, "Goodbye Trastevere" on hand. My mom is 90 and in assisted living now, but no doubt, if she were able, she would be present with boxes of svogliate and deep condolences. My prayers are for his family and also for Jerry that he is enjoying traveling all throughout heaven. -- Blandina Lecce
