Gloria was a vibrant and beautiful lady full of life and passionate about her favorite activities. She was a wonderful cook who held beautiful holiday dinners for family. She was an accomplished singer who loved to share her talent and regularly sang for a local radio station show. Gloria had a huge heart and many friends. Her delightful sense of humor, bold presence, and joyful love of life touched everyone she met.

We would like to thank the staff and nurses at Rochester Manor for their wonderful care given to Gloria in her last years.
