I enjoyed my conversations with Harry and his passion to pave the way for Grinnell Mutual in PA. He will live as the face of Pennsylvania to me. My thoughts and prayers are with Harry's family, friends, and other co-workers.

I spent sometime with Harry as single guys roaming the Beaver Valley. Unfortunately, we drifted apart over the years. Occasionally, when our paths would cross, he always made me feel like a good old friend. I don't think I ever met someone as congenial as him.. There should be more people like him in the world, not less. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Trish, Natalie, Jimmy and the rest of his family.

Trish and family. Devastated with this news. Reminiscenced many great memories as being one of his college roommates at Penn State. We enjoyed his passion for some great rock bands, his fitness routines, Love for people and kindness, and of course his sense of humor. Relocating after college we grew apart but memories never were relinquished. I'm so sorry and please know you and the family are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you Harry. Gary Ostrowski
