“ Jim was a great guy! He played at our daughter’s weddings. He played the father daughter dance at both of them. He serenaded my in laws on their 50th anniversary. Just Jim and those two on the couch while we got dinner ready. He came to our San Rocco parties and played until the band came. He played at the San Rocco golf outing on a cart and then during dinner. Rest in Peace buddy!!

“ Jimmy was a dear classmate of mine, we both loved Prince! We used to laugh over the times his mother would yell at him for stealing her eyeliner to he could emulate his idol! God bless you with eternal rest with your loving wife. RIP. Deana (Zuccaro) Trombini

“ Jimmy had such a beautiful soul. He played his mandolin at my wedding and even came with a dear friend of mine to entertain me after a surgery I had years before...not very many people would do a house call like that...but Jimmy was different. If he knew you, you were family. He was so talented, giving, loving, and kind. His perseverance was admirable and inspirational. May he rest in peace knowing he will always be remembered and honored with the utmost respect. I hope you are enjoying your reunion with your wife, son, and all of your loved ones waiting with open arms. Thank you for making this world a better place, Jimmy Mandolino Faiella!

PS

What a wonderful man! Before my father died Jimmy was in the villa with my dad. He would come down the hall everyday and get to my dad's room and play for him, for 4months! The week before he passed he still came and played for him! RIP JIM!

“ I'll never forget the fun we had at "Egidio's Italian Mandolin Night" at Sheffield Lanes, or the great times we shared at the Harmony Hut recording studio. There are so many stories! Jimmy was a terrific mandolinista and a proud Italian-American. And he was our dear friend for many years. He will be deeply missed.

“ Jimmy was a student of mine. He was one of my favorites. During his time in my class we shared our love of music. Later in life I became friends with Jimmy and his wife Patti. We spend many an evenings singing Karaoke. He will be surely missed, although I know he will be happy to be reunited with the love of his life. Rest in Peace Jimmy 🙏❤️😭
