“Wow! I’m very saddened to hear of Mr. Jasek’s passing. I knew him as “Mr. Jasek” because I was just a kid when our family moved in next door. Mr. Jasek was a great man. There was nothing he couldn’t fix or build. He was ALWAYS there to help his neighbors. He and his sons, John Jr. and Chucky (with whom I was friends) introduced me to hunting, the love of old muscle cars, and strong work ethic. He was a man of few words, but when he spoke you listened (a Clint Eastwood persona if you will; which is a very high compliment.) I wish I would’ve told him these things. I have no doubt what so ever that he is in Heaven restoring a ‘69 Roadrunner with a 383 Magnum just for God, and sitting in the Heavenly woods with his 30-06 Remington 760 Gamemaster. God bless you Mr. Jasek! Thank you for being a great neighbor & friend to my family.

With a sad heart & a tear in my eye,
Randy
