“ Jingle in your pocket....

That's one of the great memories my brother and sisters all all have of Uncle Joe. When we would come to visit he would bellow "Frankie come on over here. He would pull out a few coins from his pocket and give them to us saying every kid should have a jingle in their pocket." Uncle Joe was always fun and always gave each person his attention which always made us feel special and look forward to our visits.

“ Our sincerest condolences.

I met Joseph Piotrowski when he came to Kalisz to meet his uncle Stanisław Piotrowski. He was a great family man. Very open, warm and kind for all. He was so proud that he could visit Poland and his family. He felt Polish although he lived in the USA.

And he stayed in touch with me sharing the news about his family. And I only helped to translate letters and helped when he and his brother Ted visited family here in Poland. He also met my family. I am happy I could meet him.

He will stay in our hearts forever.
