

Jospeh D. Yezzi Sr.

August 8, 1937 - August 30, 1937

Joseph D. Yezzi, Sr. 87 of Center Township, a devoted family man, dedicated public servant, and active member of his community, passed away peacefully August 30, 2025.

Born in Rochester, PA, August 8, 1937. Joe is the son of the late Joseph and Dora Yezzi. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two sisters and a brother-in-law: Mary (Rudolph) Cellini and Italia "Ti" (Rudolph) DiGiorno. Joseph built his life around service, both to his family and to the public. He worked proudly in law enforcement as an investigator of Beaver County Police Coordination Center and later owned the title captain. Joe was instrumental in implementing the 911 call center to promote safety and well-being of others. His career in politics was marked by integrity, fairness, and compassion, earning him the respect of colleagues and community members alike. Beyond his professional life, Joseph had a strong interest in politics and remained deeply engaged in civic affairs. He was a Center Township Supervisor and held several positions within Center Township Water Authority and the Sanitary Authority. Joe believed in giving back, lending his voice and efforts to causes that strengthened his community and supported the values he held dear.

Above all, Joseph's greatest joy was his family. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend who led by example, teaching those around him the importance of loyalty, kindness, and perseverance.

Joseph is survived by his wife Philomena “Cookie” (Labellarte) Yezzi, a devoted son Joseph (Dorly) Yezzi, three stepchildren: Carrie and Matt Plevel, Walter “ Chip” and Lori Telego and Athony Telego, three grandchildren: Chase Yezzi, Amanda Telego and fiancée Chaz Wenner, Kayla and Jesse Browder, four great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
