“ When I arrived in Santa Barbara in the mid 1960's my hubby took my hand and we walked downtown to the Gramophone Shop a magical music store owned by non other than June Crowe. That was the day our friendship began and it endured through the loss of loved ones and the long distance move that June made to PA to be close to her family. June shared the most precious of gifts with me, that of friendship and I shall miss her. Rest easy and be at peace my friend. My deepest sympathy to Paul and Crowe family. Barbara McAuliffe
