“ Mrs. Iannitelli was truly one of the kindest people I’ve ever had the privilege to know. She welcomed me into her home with such warmth, and I will always remember her kindness, her smile, and the gentle way she made others feel at ease. Please accept my deepest condolences to you and your family. May God bless you during this difficult time.

Chris and family, sorry to learn of your mothers passing. Your mom always had a friendly smile on her face and she did a fantastic job raising you. You have always been one of my favorite young guys from the neighborhood. May she rest in peace and you find comfort and courage. Danny Burns and the Burns boys
