February 10, 1938 - July 5, 2024

Lillian Domenica (Silvestri) DiCioccio, 86 of Moon Township passed away with her loving family by her side on July 5, 2024.

She was born February 10, 1938, in Pacentro, Italy and is the daughter of the late Guiseppe and Elisa (Roncone) Silvestri. Lillian was also reunited with her beloved husband Pasquale A. DiCioccio who preceded her in death in 2009.

She was a member of Most Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish, Saint Margaret and Mary Church, Moon Township.

Lillian was an avid gardener. She planted an array of vegetables every year and graciously shared her bounty with family and friends. If you were to broach Lillian with politics, she enjoyed listening to one's point of view and then relished debating what she didn't agree with. She was devoted to her family and cherished the time they spent together. Her devotion and love will forever remain in the hearts she leaves behind.

Lillian was blessed with two loving children: Deborah Ann DiCioccio, Joseph DiCioccio and his wife Chele Lee who Lillian loved like her daughter. Two cherished grandsons who were truly the apple of Lillian's eye, Tyler Joseph DiCioccio and Jason Patrick DiCioccio. A special sister, Frances (Mario) Pacella and several nieces and nephews.
