It's been such a long time that we have known each other. Although our lives have not crossed paths since high school, you need to know that you have never been forgotten. When I saw that you lost both your parents in such a short span of time, my heart cried for you.

Because i can see their beautiful faces in their write-ups, God knew what He was doing when He gave you them to be your parents. Those smiles tell me that you were truly one of their wonderful daughters.

May God continue to be with you and comfort during this time and always.
