“ I remember spending a lot of time and fun with my cousin, Mickey. We went to movies and dinner when she worked in town. There were roller skating parties with Mickey and her brother Joe when we were in high school.

I like to think about the first night she brought Snowball home, and we spent the night playing with him in her room. It was love at first sight for both of them.

---The wedding shower at our house(Sadie and Nick), and the fabulous wedding of Mickey and Jim. They were so happy.

I remember visiting Mickey and Jim for some really great family dinners. There was also the time when Jay and I brought our kids(Noah and Lauren) to hang out with Jimmy and Joey. it was quite a picnic. Mickey and I just stood there for a minute watching the kids smiling at each other. We were both truly happy that day.

I will miss that birthday lottery ticket she sent me every year. I told her if I won we would both be "filthy rich". She always laughed, and said she was counting on that.

Mickey will always be with me, and I will smile.

“ *Jimmy, Jim and Joe,
Jim and I extend our most sincere sympathy and wish you and your families strength in this difficult time.
We will fondly always remember Mickey for her humor, sensibility, and magnificent cookies. She never really considered baking all those cookies work. Remember what she created, not just cookies but the cake, too, for Joe's wedding reception?
And when I was in grade school and the Profeta family lived just about 4 blocks from our home on the North Side Mickey would walk up the hills to visit with us and read to me. I think I learned my love of reading from Mickey more than from school. Her voice was very soothing when I was ill.
Blessings to all of you.
Your cousins,
Jim and Mary Lu Magasano Denny*
