“ Marie was a great neighbor on Lincoln Drive! She was always busy working in the garden or cooking & loving every minute of it! No matter what she was doing her hair was always perfect! She was truly a great lady & friend to me, my husband Bill & daughter Susan!
God Bless!

ME

“ I remember going with my mom, Nana, and sisters to visit with Aunt Mae and Uncle Frank when we were kids, rolling a ball back and forth in their hallway, playing in their living room, and chasing each other around outside in their beautiful back yard with our 2nd cousins, Richard, Robert, Paul and Maria. I'll never forget how sweet Aunt Mae was to all of us, putting out trays full of snacks and treats every time we visited. These memories have been cemented by taking my own little one over to visit not long ago, and watching her run around with my 2nd cousins' kids, Enzo, Gia, Giada, and Stephanie (and most recently Faith!). Its impossible not to smile when I think of Aunt Mae, and visits with her beautiful family. I will never forget her.
