“ I have known Aunt Elizabeth over 50 years. What a beautiful person. One of the traits that I loved about her was her honesty. You always knew where you stood with her. She would tell things like they are. Over the years we have had many great conversations. It was such a pleasure to speak with her. I always enjoyed her telling me what she was cooking. She and I shared alot of talks about our recipes. Aunt Elizabeth was a Southern gal. Being from the South we shared a special bond from day one when we met. We talked about her growing up in the small town of Marion, Virginia which was next door to where I grew up. She was so proud of her family her kids, grandkids, inlaws etc. I remember her telling me many stories about taking neighbors to doctor appointments, grocery store or anywhere they needed to go. What was so funny about it was Aunt Elizabeth was older than all of them but she took care of them. She drove herself until 80's or 90's. Her 100th birthday was a beautiful event. Tim and her family did an outstanding job. She was all smiles. The Mayor attended, she got letters from the President and Governor of Pa. It was a beautiful celebration for a person so deserving of it. She loved her daughter Carolyn coming for a month each year. She always looked forward to those visits. Her son Tim was the apple of her eye. She always said she couldnt get along without him. Her ex-daughter inlaw was such a special person to her. In later years she did so much for her. Aunt Elizabeth always said she treated her like a daughter. She always shared accomplishments of her grandchildren with me. She was so proud. Aunt Elizabeth I will dearly miss you and all of our long talks. I am so grateful to you for sharing your love and wisdom with me. No more pain and suffering. Rest in peace and just know you will always hold a special place in my heart. I love you beautiful lady.
