“ My deepest condolences to the whole Ross family. Momma Mary and I certainly had our differences, but it was mostly because I always felt inferior to her Jeopardy and rummy prowess. I know she was the glue that held all of you together and she certainly will be missed. There are many beautiful memories she'll leave with all of you and I'm sure she'll be taking the love you shared with her in her soul. May God bless her and grant her everlasting peace in heaven...
