Otto Zuccaro 87, of Hopewell Township died after a brief battle with cancer on February 1, 2024

He was born April 1, 1937, in Logstown, PA and is the son of the late Rocco and Soldia (Casoli) Zuccaro. Otto was preceded in death by his loving wife of 59 years Candice “Candy” (Smallwood) Zuccaro on September 4, 2024, and a brother William “Poochie” Zuccaro, sister-in-law Domenica Zuccaro and his cherished cat, Lucky.

Otto was a veteran of the United States Army.

He retired from J&L Steelworks having worked in the Tin Mill and various other positions.

Otto enjoyed casting a line in the water patiently waiting to snag a big fish. He was also known as an avid “Do it you selfer” when it came to fixing things however that didn’t always end well. Otto also liked spending time at the casino. His one line “zingers” gave us many laughs and he will be missed.

Six grandchildren, Anthony Zuccaro (Katie McLennan), Rushel Shell III, (Kayla Stevenson) Dante Trombini (Thomas Casella), Mia Trombini (Declan Eaton), Darrian Zuccaro and Alison Shephard. Richard) Fetkovich, Kathy (Richard) Ursitti and Terri (Mike) Pauvlinch. Otto will also be remembered by many special nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. In addition to his family and friends, Otto leaves behind a beloved dog Rocky and a granddog, Minkah.
