“ Patty and I have been friends for 50 years. It was meant to be. I'm from Louisiana she was from Pennsylvania what were the chances of us meeting and being best friends. We meet in 1972 in Chula Vista, California while our husbands were in the Navy. Every time we talked it was like we would go back in time. Patty called me last week and it was a wonderful surprise. We laughed so much about Christmas Cookies we made cause we had to eat them all. Ya'll did pick up on we had to eat them all. It was a honor to call Patty my Friend she will be in my prayers and missed dearly Love to ya'll

Pat and I became friends at Aliquippa Hospital. She was a good nurse, always kind and easy going. Many mornings we would start our day with breakfast before work; I remember those times with great fondness. Rest in peace, Pat.
