Bob enjoyed attending car cruises with his '68' Mercury Cougar and target practice at the gun range with his son, David and son-in-law, Steve. Bob loved mastering his craft in Poekoelan (karate) with a black belt and teaching those skills to his children and grandchildren. Bob took pride in all he did throughout his life whether it would be cutting the grass, lifting weights, breaking out dance moves to his famous "Kung Fu fighting" dance or waxing his car. Most importantly, his greatest treasure was spending time with his grandchildren Arabella, Ace and Enzo. Whether it was playing cards, drawing, playing outside in the yard, watching Rocky Balboa, or attending sporting events.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 51 years Linda (Karas) Marchionda, Three children: Robert Jr. (and his children), Kelly Marchionda and husband Steven Huselton, David and wife Katie Marchionda. His living treasures and grandchildren: Arabella, Ace, Enzo and Rocco (arriving soon).

Bob truly had a heart of gold who was respected by all. He had the kindest soul no matter how tough he was on the outside. Bob always shared the greatest stories and legacy will live on. He was truly the man, the myth and always will be, the legend. We Love you Daddy.

“ I'll never forget walking the dogs late at night when I was a kid. The best was playing 500 rummy when working a double down the mill.
