“ I never met Mrs. Rosemary but I'm her grandsons fiancé and heard very sweet conversations between Joseph Japic and his grandmother. He loves her very much, kept in touch and it hurt my heart yesterday to watch him try to reach her just to find out she had passed without anyone letting him know or her granddaughter Leah. I know she will be missed by them, and I'm thankful for her contributions and steadiness in their lives.

“ My half-sister and I weren't close and years gone by created more distance, but I'm glad I did get to see and talk to her before she departed. I always had (and still have) love in my heart for her. Life's pains are gone now.

“ I am Rosemary Japic's grandson, though I was not mentioned, and I wasn't informed when she passed away. I had tried calling last week and didn't get an answer. I had spoken to her the week before, and I always made it a point to call her as much as I could.

She was like a second mother to me. I loved her very much, and she will be deeply missed. My heart is heavy knowing she's gone, but I will always cherish the memories and the love she gave me.
