

Susan L. DiCicco

November 12, 1938 - March 11, 2022

Susan L. (Corsi) DiCicco, 83 of Beaver is now at peace, she passed away unexpectedly on March 9, 2022.

She was born November 12, 1938, in Aliquippa and was the daughter of the late Michael and Lena Corsi.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister: Noreen (Dan) Walden, a brother-in-law, George Plevel, sister-in-law Irene Corsi, a niece, Debra Namie and Susan's longtime companion, Dominic Battisti.

Susan was Catholic by faith and prayed often. She retired with 40 years of service from the former Geriatric Center where she worked as a physical therapy assistant.

Susan liked to knit and crochet lovingly making afghans, baby blankets and booties for her family and friends. She also found enjoyment baking, cooking delicious meals and taking walks outside.

Susan was a devoted mother and grandmother and will be missed by her family who survives her.

A beloved son and daughter-in-law: Michael A. and Susan DiCicco, her treasured grandchildren: Joseph and Sarah DiCicco, Leah and T.J. Chambers and four great grandchildren who their Nonna adored: Jace, Lena, Ava and Arora. Susan is also survived by a brother, Richard Corsi, sister, Mickie Plevel and numerous nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be Monday from 3:00 pm until time of service at 6:30 pm in the Anthony Mastrofrancesco

“ Sue was my next door neighbor for 12 years. When I needed it, she always seemed to have that 'spice' that I was lacking for a recipe. Her Italian cooking was the best I've ever tasted and she shared it lovingly and willingly. Over the years, we laughed and cried together over the telling of our life's stories to each other. I will miss her terribly. May you rest in peace, Sue.... Cheryl
