

Thomas G. Thompson Jr.

December 29, 1944 - May 5, 2024

Thomas G. Thompson, Jr, fell asleep in death on May 5, 2024 at the age of 79. He was a loving husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend for many years. He was the eldest of three sons born to Thomas G Sr and Vera Thompson on December 29, 1944 in New Brighton, PA.

Thomas was a long time, devoted Jehovah's Witness and instrumental in assisting others dedicate their lives to serve their God, Jehovah. In addition, He was clearly the epitome of hard work as he worked many years and retired from First Energy. His work ethic was unmatched, not only in his ministry and his secular work, but also as a loving provider for his family. When he did get a few moments to enjoy himself, he loved watching sports. He had a great sense of humor and had nicknames for all family members and it was truly refreshing to be in his presence.

He married his beloved wife on August 5, 1967, Ida Thompson, and they shared the blessing of six wonderful children. Left to cherish his memory forever are his wife, their children, Terrance Thompson, Craig Thompson, Arlon Thompson (Donesha), Darryn (Cassandra) Thompson, Tamara Gillette, and Joy-Salyn (Vincent) Tooks. His 13 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, 2 brothers, Ronald (Diana) Thompson, and Myron Thompson. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

“ I extend my sincere condolences to the family. Thomas was my cousin and we shared many memories, I affectionally called him Casper and He would always end our conversation with "I cant stand you" which was our private joke that meant "I love you". He was kind, considered and a true family man. I will miss him, but will cherish what we had. Much Love, Della Hudson

Tommy was my friend and a true "Brother". He told me that his initials TG stands for too good as a joke. That was over fifty years ago. But, I will say that was no joke. He was truly, "too good"! RIP my dear friend. Your sister, Cathy Smith
