“ Great man of God. Always quick to offer a word of encouragement or to share a smile and a laugh with you. I remember when he had a truckload of leftover mulch, and he called and asked if I wanted it. He gave away a ton of fall decorations to my wife to decorate our place with. My wife and I have many fond memories of going out to lunch and dinner with Bill and Colleen. Bill made some great chili and cornbread too! I will always love Bill and family and cherish the memories that I have with him. Thank God he is in glory now and I will see him again one day!

“ Billy,

You have been an encouragement to me and prayed so many times for me. I can't thank you enough. I will miss the laughs we shared! I am happy you are no longer in pain and hope your death is a occasion for those you love that have not accepted JESUS CHRIST as savior to stop and consider their eternal destiny.
